Louise's practice focuses on helping businesses, nonprofits and individuals resolve their disputes, prevent future ones and get back to work. Her litigation and dispute resolution practice includes contracts, commercial transactions, leases, employment, real estate, creditors' rights and bankruptcy law, proprietary information, non-competition and confidentiality agreements, and intellectual property. She also serves as Chief Outside Legal Counsel to Hawai'i-based online game development company Tetris Online, Inc.

Louise has frequently devoted her energy to help strengthen Hawai'i's communities as a board member of non-profits (the University of Hawai'i Foundation and Child & Family Service, among others), and Hawai'i-based companies such as Island Holdings, as well as serving as past President of both the Hawaii State Bar Association and Hawaii State Bar Foundation.

Her awards and recognitions include: Best Lawyers in America's® 2015 Hawai'i Lawyer of the Year for both Bankruptcy Litigation and Bet-the-Company Litigation; Benchmark Litigation Top 250 Women in Litigation; Best Lawyers in America® in the categories of Commercial Litigation, Bet-the-Company Litigation, Bankruptcy Litigation, Labor and Employment Litigation, and Real Estate Litigation; Chambers USA™; Martindale-Hubbell AV rating; Super Lawyers; the Patsy T. Mink PAC award for her legislative advocacy work on women's health issues; and leadership awards from Hawaii Women Lawyers, Hawaii State Bar Association, the YWCA of O`ahu, Girl Scouts of Hawaii, and Pacific Business News.

Born in Honolulu, Louise earned her J.D. from Boalt Hall School of Law at U.C. Berkeley, and her B.A. magna cum laude in American Studies from Yale University. She is married with two children, a daughter in college in New York City and a son who is a proud employee of the Boston Red Sox.
