His daily practice is 100% focused on litigation and dispute resolution where he strives for the quickest resolution to the client's problems, or assiduously prepares to litigate those problems if necessary.

Bill has participated as counsel in over fifty jury/judge trials and binding arbitrations with a very high degree of success for his clients, most recently convincing a jury to only award $48,000 to a plaintiff whose well-known trial attorney had requested $60 million.

Bill received his J.D. from Columbia University, and worked his way through the School of Law part time as a law clerk for the Center on Social Welfare Policy and Law. Soon after he moved to Hawaii and started his practice with a firm representing defendants in criminal cases. He is a licensed to practice in the United States Supreme Court, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and United States District Court, as well as all Hawaii Courts.
