

p (808) 524-1800
f (808) 524-4591
avandenbergh@ahfi.com

Aglaë Van den Bergh

Associate

Aggie is a problem solver who creates value for her clients by finding effective and efficient solutions to the issues presented. Prior to joining the firm, Aggie served as the law clerk to the Honorable Edwin C. Nacino at the Circuit Court, where she learned the ins and outs of our State's judicial system. She also completed an externship at the Hawaii Supreme Court under supervision of the Honorable Richard W. Pollack. These past positions have been invaluable in honing her research and writing skills and in understanding what the courts pay special attention to when ruling on motions.

Aggie attended the William S. Richardson School of law and the Shidler College of business where she earned joint JD and MBA degrees. Born and raised in Belgium, Aggie was recruited on a full scholarship by the University of Hawaii to compete on its Division 1 tennis team. During her collegiate career, she obtained BBAs in Finance and International Business, and she also played a key role in capturing the school's first conference championship title. When she's not advocating on behalf of her clients, Aggie enjoys playing tennis and surfing.

Practice Areas

Corporate and Business
Healthcare
Medical Malpractice
Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy
Intellectual Property
Litigation
Real Estate
Business Advice and Counseling

Admitted to Practice

Hawai`i
U.S. District Court for the District of Hawai`i

Affiliations

Hawaii State Bar Association

Education

William S. Richardson School of Law (J.D.), University of Hawai`i Shidler College of Business (M.B.A.), University of Hawai`i Shidler College of Business (B.B.A., International Business and Finance, cum laude), University of Hawai`i

Past Positions:

Circuit Court of the First Circuit, Law Clerk to the Honorable Edwin C. Nacino
Hawai'i Supreme Court, Judicial Extern to the Honorable Richard W. Pollack
William S. Richardson School of Law, Legal Research Assistant