

Jasmine Fisher

Associate

p (808) 524-1800
 f (808) 524-4591
 jfisher@ahfi.com

Jasmine M. Fisher is an associate in AHFI's complex commercial litigation and healthcare practice groups. She is committed to efficient problem-solving in her practice, with experience in the areas of civil and commercial litigation, healthcare, insurance defense, and corporate governance. She has litigated multimillion dollar legal disputes and represents some of the most well-known organizations in Hawaii.

Prior to joining AHFI, Jasmine gained valuable legal experience at the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate for the United States Air Force, the District Court of Maryland, FINRA, and the WilmerHale Legal Services Center. Jasmine is licensed to practice in Hawaii, Maryland, and the District of Columbia. She was born and raised in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Practice Areas

- Appellate Practice
- Business Advice and Counseling
- Business and Nonprofit Governance and Formation
- Complex Commercial Litigation
- Corporate and Business
- Government Contracts
- Healthcare
- Insurance Coverage
- Intellectual Property
- Litigation
- Litigation and Regulatory Compliance

Admitted to Practice

- Hawaii
- Maryland
- District of Columbia

Publications

Fairer Shores: Tax Havens, Tax Avoidance, and Corporate Social Responsibility, 94 B.U. L. REV. 337 (2014).

Jasmine Fisher

Associate

Education

- Boston University School of Law (J.D.)
 - Boston University Law Review, Editor
 - University of California, Santa Barbara (B.A., Honors)
 - Dean's Honors
-

Past Positions

- District Court of Maryland, Prince George's County
 - Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, United States Air Force, 35FW
 - Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), Dispute Resolution
 - WilmerHale Legal Services Center
-